

Confident Photoshoot Styling Sessions

You've booked your photoshoot – great news. Now the tricky part – what are you going to wear?

You don't need me to go on about how important it is to wear the right outfit – that's why you're here!

I've put together two special packages to guide and inspire you as you choose and refine your look. Heading into your session, you'll feel confident it's a look that will portray your personality and brand to a tee in your final images!

I'm happy to tailor the sessions so we can spend time on the areas you want to focus on.

Confident Headshot Style Package

Before the session, we'll have a chat to explore a little about you and the look you're aiming for with your shoot. During the session, I'll show you some colours that will suit you and really light you up in your photos. You'll go away with suggestions on choosing an outfit that will fit and flatter, and most importantly, represent you in the best possible way.

You'll come away with the confidence to put together a look for your headshots, and some hints and tips on the things that suit you that you can carry forward into your wardrobe in general.

Investment - £95 – includes a style summary with your personalised notes

Session is held virtually via Zoom, or in-person at my Studio in Felpham, West Sussex

Confident Photoshoot, and beyond, Full Style Package

The ultimate confidence-booster! This half-day session covers all outlined in the Confident Headshot Style package above, plus we'll delve deeper to discover your brand, the colour palette with the best shades to help you shine, and advice and guidance on putting together outfits that will fit and flatter, for the shoot, and beyond.

We'll 'shop your wardrobe' so you can put together a great outfit for your shoot, and if needed, I'll put together some suggestions for items to buy that would finish the look.

You'll come away with a clear focus on your look that will suit you and your brand, and the outfits you'll wear for your shoot. You'll also get a personalised style and colour summary, which you can use moving forward when you shop for all your clothes.

Investment - £195 – includes a colour and style summary with your personalised notes. Plus, outfit suggestions from your current wardrobe or from the shops to purchase for your shoot.

Sessions can be held virtually via Zoom, in-person at my Studio in Felpham, West Sussex, or at your home (additional travel charge may apply).

I'd love to have a no-obligation chat with you to see how best I can help you feel ready for your shoot. Get in touch via mobile – 07973 234764 or email – info@vickybooker.com
